FIVE TO WATCH: FASHION DESIGNERS

JUNE PILLAY-GRAHAM

Age: 27

Hometown: Born in East London, South Africa. Moved to Midland, Texas, when she was 8. Now lives in Carrollton.

Company: June Bijou

What she designs: Jewelry

Prices: Her designs range from $30 to $85.

Design M.O.: Pillay-Graham uses semiprecious stones, such as coral, agate and quartz, and focuses on rich, gemstone colors.

Path to design life: Pillay-Graham worked in staffing and magazine advertising before designing.

Shortly after NYU, she quit her magazine job and started taking jewelry crafting classes. A few months later, she got a job with a Southlake-based jewelry wholesaler. She branched out on her own about six months later, first selling her jewelry one Saturday from a table at a beauty salon. She made nearly $500 that day. "Life's too short not to be doing something you want to do every day."

Buzzings: "When I see beads, I'm like, 'Ooh, candy!'"

BUZZ ALERT

June Bijou has been the glam touch for a few well-known folks. American Idol judge Paula Abdul and contestant Yanzell wore pieces from the line at the show. Eva Longoria, Natalie Portman and Kelly Hu (below) have also worn pieces.
